Kawayantech Bamboo Bike

A special bicycle made out of bamboo is waiting for its very special owner to take it for a ride along scenic views in the countryside.

They were handcrafted with care by the residents of GK Sitio Pajo in Quezon City where Kawayantech partnered with the poor community in the manufacture of its earth-friendly bamboo bikes.

In 2009, Tammy Villanueva, her late husband Hecky and their friends John Climaco, Eng Chan, Eric Cadiz, and Boy Siojo took their love for the outdoors and passion for protecting the environment to a higher level by forming Kawayantech to produce bamboo bikes of superior quality.

In 2011, they partnered with GKconomics International, the social enterprise development arm of Gawad Kalinga, to train residents with the necessary skills in bike frames manufacturing. Today, Kawayantech continues to harness local materials in a sustainable manner while providing jobs to poor communities.

Onib Olmedo (1937-1996)

The Wise Woman

1975

The late Onib Olmedo is widely recognized as a modern Philippine master, being one of the country's leading exponents of figurative expressionism. Siopao Vendor (also known as The Wise Woman) is an elegantly composed early work by the artist dating from 1975 that prefigures his darker, more angst-ridden canvases and ink wash paintings on paper. It bears the hallmarks of the artist's style: from the distortion of the subject to the subdued palette and assured intermingling of colors evoking both tension and calm.

Wine tasting holiday at Chateau Siran, Bordeaux + KLM Business Class tickets for two

It is said that wines taste better as they grow older. Nowhere is it truer than in romantic Chateau Siran, situated in Bordeaux, southwest France.

Château Siran is one of the rare Bordeaux chateaux to belong to the same family for nearly 150 years. The vineyards of the estate, located on the plateau of Labarde in the Margaux appellation, are entirely surrounded by classed growth of 1855. Wines produced here are simply unique having a rare blend of merlot, cabernet sauvignon and petit verdot, creating finesse, femininity and silkiness, which a bottle of Siran is famous for.

With a roundtrip business class ticket courtesy of KLM Royal Dutch Airlines, your journey of inspiration starts in the sky and continues with three blissful nights at Chateau Siran. A beautiful dream will wake you up to complimentary breakfasts amidst tranquil surroundings.

You will also get to visit other chateaus and go on free wine tours in Bordeaux, where wines have been made since the 8th century. A special dinner with the winemaker is on the house who will give you Siran's very own Jeroboam, an old vintage wine to remind you of three days spent well. Not only will you get to bring home beautiful memories from France that gets better with time, you also get to build sustainable communities in Sulu, a legacy worth leaving for generations to come.
